

Latinx Heritage Month

Latinx Heritage Month Kickoff
Danzantes Performance, food, music!
Malcolm X Plaza (12-2)

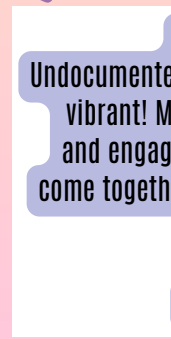

Karaoke Competition
Contestants will sing, dance, show out!
Rigoberta Menchu Hall (4:30 - 6:00)

Bilingual journalism para quién?
Fostering a Sense of Belonging through the Bilingual Journalism Program at SFSU LIB 286 (12:30)

Zines workshop
LIB 121
(12 - 3:00)

Karaoke Finals
Contestants will sing randomized songs
Rigoberta Menchu Hall (4:30 - 6:00)

Undocumented Student Month of Action Kickoff
Celebrate the commencement of Undocumented Student Month of Action at the vibrant! Music by DJ Sizzle, mural painting, and engaging arts & crafts activities, as we come together to show support and solidarity for undocumented students.
Malcolm X Plaza (11:00 - 3:00)

In the Fields of the North / En los campos del norte
A series of evocative photographs accompanied by moving oral narratives - fully translated into both English and Spanish - that take visitors into the contemporary world of migrant farm workers
Fine Arts Building Room 203
(October 3-December 7): Open to public Tues-Wed-Thu 11am-4pm; Saturday October 14, 1-3pm public reception

Who says it better? Slang debated)
Slang in Spanish, from Southern California, Northern California, Central California, or another state
Latinx Student Center (4:30 - 6:00)

Beyond Graduation: A Conversation with Yosimar Reyes
Engage in an inspiring conversation with a distinguished SFSU alumni, celebrated poet, and renowned public speaker
University Club (11:30 - 3:00)

Yoga with Quince Playlist
Is this Yoga or Quince Practice? Come find out!
Mashouf (4:30 - 5:45)

A Coming Out Lecture: An Evening with Julio Salgado
Explore his powerful art capturing key moments in the DREAM Act and migrant rights movement, offering an intersectional perspective
Seven Hills Conference Center (5:00 - 6:30)

