

remember Los siete!

APRIL 18 WOMEN OUT IN FRONT!

How the community freed Los Siete de la Raza

In May 1969, seven young Latinos from the Mission district were charged with murdering a San Francisco police officer. They became known as Los Siete de la Raza by a broad-based community support group that worked with famed civil rights lawyer Charles Garry to win their acquittal.

Artwork by Fernando Marti

PANEL FEATURING
WOMEN LEADERS
OF THE
LOS SIETE SUPPORT
COMMITTEE

DONNA AMADOR
YOLANDA LOPEZ
JUDY DRUMMOND

APRIL 18
11:00 - 12:15

J. PAUL LEONARD
LIBRARY
ROOM 460

Sponsored by:

J. Paul Leonard Library
Special Collections

Bay Area Television
Archive

Race and Resistance
Studies

Latina/o Studies